

NATIONAL DEBT

IMPACTS IMPORTANT ISSUES FACING AMERICA

AS CONGRESS AND A NEW ADMINISTRATION EXPLORE MAJOR REFORMS, THE NATIONAL DEBT IS THE ONE ISSUE THAT AFFECTS ALL OTHERS.

At $19 trillion and growing, the national debt threatens our economy and weakens our ability to address our most important budget priorities. The debt is already at its highest level since 1950 and in just over a decade, interest on the national debt will be our third largest federal “program.” America’s rising debt must be a central part of the 2017 policy discussion, because addressing it is essential for us to meet the most pressing challenges of a changing economy.

ECONOMIC GROWTH

“Large and growing federal debt . . . would hurt the economy and constrain future budget policy.”
—CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE

TAX REFORM

- GOALS:
- Promote economic growth
 - Reduce complexity
 - Increase transparency and fairness
 - Improve our fiscal outlook

Many economists recommend eliminating some or all tax expenditures — or tax breaks — which total more than we spend on Social Security, Defense, or Medicare.

INVESTMENTS IN OUR FUTURE

The interest on our debt is crowding out key investments in our economy — such as spending on education, R&D, and infrastructure.

NATIONAL SECURITY

“The single biggest threat to our national security is our debt.”

—ADMIRAL MIKE MULLEN, FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF

“Our national security is fundamentally linked to the fiscal sustainability of our federal budget.”
