WELCOME BACK,

CONGRESS

The House and Senate return from August break on September 9 with their work cut out for them on the fiscal front. The challenge is urgent and demands leadership. Here are the issues and key points to keep in mind this fall.

FISCAL TO-DO

①

ONLY

9 DAYS

Congress is only in session for 9 legislative days before the new fiscal year starts on October 1st. That means there is very little time to reach an agreement on how much agencies can spend in FY 2014.
