

Fiscal Confidence Index: July 2017 Results

Topline survey results from the Fiscal Confidence Index for July 2017. The FCI value for July is 52.

The Peter G. Peterson Foundation commissioned a poll by the Global Strategy Group and North Star Opinion Research to survey public opinion on the national debt. The nationwide poll included 1,003 U.S. registered voters, surveyed by telephone between July 17 and July 20, 2017. The poll has a margin of error of +/- 3.1%. The poll examined voters' opinions on the national debt, political leadership, and America's fiscal and economic health.

The Fiscal Confidence Index value is derived from six questions in three categories: Concern, Priority, and Expectations. The July 2017 scores are: Concern (43), Priority (33), Expectations (78).
