

Fiscal Confidence Index: April 2018 Results

Topline survey results from the Fiscal Confidence Index for April 2018. The FCI value for April is 47.

The Peter G. Peterson Foundation commissioned a poll by the Global Strategy Group and North Star Opinion Research to survey public opinion on the national debt. The nationwide poll included 1,006 U.S. registered voters, surveyed by telephone between April 16 and April 19, 2018. The poll has a margin of error of +/- 3.1%. The poll examined voters' opinions on the national debt, political leadership, and America's fiscal and economic health.

The Fiscal Confidence Index value is derived from six questions in three categories: Concern, Priority, and Expectations. The April 2018 scores are: Concern (44), Priority (21), Expectations (74).
