State and local debt adds to our nation’s fiscal challenges

NOTES: Federal debt held by the public refers to all federal debt held by individuals, corporations, state or local governments, and foreign entities. Federal debt is the level on September 30 of each year. State and local debt is the level on December 31 of each year.