

The normal retirement age for receiving full Social Security benefits depends on the year of birth

NORMAL (FULL) RETIREMENT AGE FOR SOCIAL SECURITY

Year of Birth	Age
1937 and prior	65
1938	65 and 2 months
1939	65 and 4 months
1940	65 and 6 months
1941	65 and 8 months
1942	65 and 10 months
1943-54	66
1955	66 and 2 months
1956	66 and 4 months
1957	66 and 6 months
1958	66 and 8 months
1959	66 and 10 months
1960 and later	67

SOURCE: Congressional Budget Office, 2016 Long-Term Projections for Social Security: Additional Information, December 2016. Compiled by PGPF.